

This is BESEROVIA, the journal of that lovely game, 1969G. This special issue comes to you courtesy of your much over-worked Gamesmaster, who is somewhat more than slowly going bats. In case you're wondering about the numbers, #6 contained the wrap-up for #1969BQ. Anyway, this is Pen-demonium Publication #154, edited and published by Rod Walker, 5058 Hawley Blvd., San Diego CA 92116; 'phone (714) 282-1921.

GERMANY-RUSSIA MAKE BID FOR SUPREMACY AS AUSTRIA INVADED, TURKEY MENACED, ITALY THUMPED!

Spring 1905: No moves were received from the Italian player. The first stand-by, Eric Just, P.O. Box 131, Pool OK 73074, is requested to make stand-by Fall 1905 moves for Italy. Copies of this issue will be sent to Eric and also to Alan Colhomer. His commentary on the moves is requested (AI, I could use it by the Fall 1905 deadline indicated below, please).

Please also note the Turkish moves. The Turkish player sent moves conditional upon the four directions for the Italian retreat; however, he did not make any moves conditional upon the possibility that there would be no retreat (which is what happened). Therefore, two units in effect received conflicting orders with no way for me to resolve them. Remember, one of the possibilities inherent in any retreat is that the player will not make it.

I also have no moves (nor Sealed Orders) for the English player. I am sure this is an oversight on Charles' part and will not call for stand-by moves.
